PRISMA 6 – CORPUS

Poetry of the Human Figure

November, 2023

ArteMorfosis proudly presents “CORPUS,” a showcase of the Jury Selection of exceptional works from our PRISMA 6 call for artists. This exhibition delves into artistic creativity and digital presentation.

Theme: Exploring the human body as a muse, “Corpus” features a variety of artistic expressions, spanning traditional and digital mediums. Each piece offers a unique narrative, celebrating the diversity and richness of contemporary Cuban art.

Objective: Focused on more than just creation, this exhibition emphasizes the importance of artists presenting their work online. ArteMorfosis supports artists in expanding their digital reach, underscoring that the art journey extends beyond the studio to skillful online engagement.

Experience: Discover a realm where art and digital proficiency converge, showcasing how contemporary Cuban artists navigate the evolving landscape of artistic commercialization and online presence.

Witness the fusion of creativity and digital acumen.
